BREAKING AWAY

We came to this school
Not knowing what to expect.
We experienced new things
From one moment to the next.
Day by day we began to adjust,
As memories from the past began to rust.
We were compelled to adjust to new rules of merit
And all we could do was grin and bear it.
But we did it, yes, we bore it for two years;
With pressure from teachers and pressure from peers
And now just as we've adjusted
To this school and new name
We must move on to a new school
And do the same.
But now to this school
This phrase we must state:
"So long, Junior High,
It's really been great!"
